

Thomas J. Moran, Associate

TJ Moran is a litigator whose practice is largely devoted to civil defense. He has successfully defended commercial property owners, Fortune 500 companies, and various other individuals and businesses in a wide variety of business disputes and liability claims.

TJ has particular experience in general liability matters and trademark and copyright disputes. As an Orange County native, TJ has a unique understanding of the local business community and its evolving needs. He prides himself in his ability to achieve swift, effective, and positive results for his clients regardless of the nature or scope of the underlying matter.

TJ has accumulated an impressive stat sheet of successful dispositive motions, favorable settlements, and case-breaking investigations, and trial work.

EDUCATION

J.D., 2011, Washington & Lee University School of Law, Lexington, Virginia

B.A., magna cum laude, 2007, Santa Clara University, Santa Clara, California

ADMISSIONS

State Bar of California

United States, Ninth Circuit, California Southern, Central, and Northern Districts

HONORS AND MEMBERSHIPS

Association of Southern California Defense Counsel

Orange County Bar Association

OCBA College of Trial Advocacy Certificate

Publication Editor, W&L Journal of Civil Rights & Social Justice (2010-2011)

PUBLICATIONS

Just A Little Bit Of History Repeating: The California Model Of Marijuana Legalization And How It Might Affect Racial And Ethnic Minorities — 17 Wash. & Lee J. Civ. Rts. & Soc. Just. 557, 561-66 (2011) (a selected text for Yale Law School's Spring 2013 Linman Public Interest Workshop)
